EVENTS TO MARK THE 90TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE
INTER-AMERICAN CHILDREN'S INSTITUTE

CALL FOR A PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBITION

AN ALBUM ON RIGHTS

Call for a Photographic Exhibition “An Album on Rights”

The Inter-American Children's Institute (IIN) is the specialized agency of the OAS responsible of promotion of studies related to children, adolescents and the family in the Americas and to generate technical instruments that improve the performance of States in the promotion and protection of the Rights of children and adolescents through their public policies.

The IIN was founded on June 9 1927. This year on the occasion of celebrating its 90th anniversary, and with the purpose of promoting and encouraging the participation of children and adolescents in the region, we convene you to be part of the photographic exhibition: The Album on Rights.

Objectives. Celebrate the Institute's 90 years of existence by promoting an expressive - creative space, collecting children's and adolescents perspectives on the promotion and protection of their rights through photography

Theme. The photographs must refer to the vision that children and adolescents have of the effective exercise of their rights, and their relationship with the adult world.

Participants. The photographer must be citizen and or resident between the ages of 6 and 17 of the member states of the Organization of American States (OAS)

Categories: Between 6 and 12 years and from 13 to 17 years.

BASES AND CONDITIONS

1. Participation in this Call is totally free
2. The works must be unpublished (not published by print or electronic means), and not awarded in other competitions.
3. The works must be exclusive of the author (children and adolescents must be the photographers). Participants will be responsible for ensuring that photographs are their exclusive property.
4. Twenty photographs will be selected that will form a traveling exhibition that will be visited by OAS Member States.
5. The authors of the selected photographs will be informed via email or telephone, once the Selection Committee convened by the IIN issues the results.
6. Participants transfer to the Inter-American Children's Institute (IIN-OAS) all rights to use, reproduce and disseminate the photographs and explanatory texts submitted to the Call. The use, reproduction and dissemination by the IIN will always be carried out with a non-profit purpose and mentioning the author. The photographs received may also be used to illustrate various activities of the IIN.
7. The final results will be published on the IIN's website and the selected works will be in the IIN's Digital Project "Rights Album".
8. The sole presentation to the Call implies the of its bases.
9. The selected participants will receive a certificate of recognition giving an account of this situation.
